O R D E R

On April 24, 1990, the Commission received an application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for authority to resell telecommunications services in the Commonwealth of Kentucky on an intraLATA and interLATA basis from Americall Long Distance, Inc. By Order dated June 28, 1990, the Commission requested that Americall Long Distance, Inc. file responses to data requests.

On July 27, 1990, Americall Long Distance, Inc. filed a motion to withdraw its application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity. In support of its motion to withdraw, Americall Long Distance, Inc. asserts that the parties to an acquisition by its parent company, Cincinnati Bell, Inc., of an existing long-distance reseller had not been able to reach final agreement on the terms and conditions under which the purchase of assets was to be made. Americall Long Distance, Inc. requests permission to withdraw its application without prejudice to the same or similar application being filed at a later time.

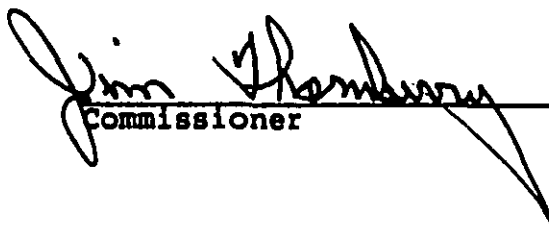

The Commission, having reviewed Americall Long Distance, Inc.'s motion to withdraw its application and being otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that the motion be granted without prejudice.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 22nd day of August, 1990.
